Bio

I completed my degree in IT and German, after spending a year working in Germany. I then moved to Luxembourg, working for the European Commission, where I met my husband. We moved to Perth, Australia living there for 10 years. We then decided to go on a European tour and try and find somewhere nice to reside. We did, and so moved to Geneva, Switzerland, where we spent a year eating chocolate, and looking at snowy mountains. During this time, an opportunity came up for the husband to work in Minnesota, so we relocated and lived happily for four years. After all this time away, and having never spent any time as adults living in the UK, we have recently decided to come back and now reside in North Yorkshire.

[Incidentally, during this time I was always fully employed in the IT industry].

It was whilst I was in Minnesota that I developed an interest in voice-over. Minneapolis has always traditionally been one of the big US three sites for VO work. I received my training from the wonderful Sarah Jones Larson (sarah@voiceresults.com) in Minneapolis, and also received coaching from John Farrell, Beth Chaplin, Nancy Crocker and Ross Young (amongst others).

I immediately was able to get myself representation with Jerry Howarth (jerry@voiceboxtalent.com) at VoiceBox Talent in Minneapolis (non-exclusive).
